PURPOSE

The purpose of an Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) is to address and resolve complaints related to sexual harassment at Nirmala College of Pharmacy, Muvattupuzha.

SCOPE

The scope of an Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) is focused on addressing and resolving complaints related to sexual harassment in the workplace. The ICC's primary responsibility is to ensure the effective implementation of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act, 2013, which applies to all workplaces in India.

The key areas within the scope of an ICC

- Handling Complaints
- Investigation
- Redressal
- Confidentiality
- Prevention and Awareness
- Record-Keeping
- Support and Protection of the complainant

PREAMBLE: In view of the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act, 2013 and in consideration of the determination of the Central Government and as per UGC (prevention, prohibition, and redressal of sexual harassment of women employees and students in higher education institutions) regulations, 2015 and No F. 91-1/2013(TFGS).

POLICY STATEMENT

- To prevent incidents of sexual harassment by creating awareness, conducting training programs, and implementing policies that promote a safe college environment
- To provide a formal and confidential platform for employees/students to report incidents of sexual harassment without fear of victimization or retaliation.
- To receive complaints related to sexual harassment, whether from victims or witnesses and conduct prompt and impartial investigations into the allegations.
- To ensure fairness and objectivity
- To take corrective action
- To conduct awareness programs to educate employees and students

STRATEGY

- Policy Development and Communication
- Awareness and Training
- Confidential Reporting Mechanism
- Prompt and Impartial Investigations
- Non-Retaliation Measures
- Regular Reviews and Audits
- Record-Keeping and Compliance
- Continual Improvement

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- The ICC is responsible for receiving complaints of sexual harassment from employees, students, interns, or any other person within the organization, irrespective of their gender.
- The committee ensures that all complaints are treated with confidentiality and sensitivity, providing a safe environment for complainants to come forward.
- The ICC conducts impartial and prompt investigations into the complaints received. The investigation process should be fair and transparent, and all parties involved should be given a chance to present their side of the story.
- The ICC takes necessary measures to protect the complainant from any form of victimization or retaliation for filing a complaint.
- The committee ensures that the details of the complaint, identities of the complainant, the accused, and witnesses are kept confidential throughout the investigation.
- The ICC provides support and guidance to the complainant during the investigation process, which may include counseling or assistance in any related matter.
- Based on the findings of the investigation, the committee determines whether sexual harassment has occurred or not.
- If sexual harassment is established, the ICC recommends appropriate disciplinary action against the perpetrator, adhering to the organization's policies and applicable laws.
- The committee in association with other statutory bodies, organizes periodic awareness programs and training sessions to educate employees/students about sexual harassment, prevention strategies, and the complaint redressal process.

- The ICC reviews the organization's sexual harassment policy periodically to ensure its effectiveness and compliance with applicable laws.
- The committee maintains proper documentation of all complaints received, actions taken, and their outcomes for record-keeping and compliance purposes.
- The ICC prepares and submits periodic reports to the appropriate authority about the complaints received and actions taken.
- If any party is dissatisfied with the ICC's decision, the committee may be involved in handling appeals according to the organization's policies and procedures.
- The ICC continuously seeks ways to improve its processes and functions, aiming to create a safer work environment and enhance the complaint redressal mechanism.
